

Contents

APRIL 8, 1974 Volume 40, No. 14

Cover photograph by Neil Leifer

20 Buenas Noches, Señor

There were tax troubles before, money troubles after, but in between Foreman kept his title in the bank

24 Anybody Here Want the Derby?

Nobody seems to. The colts in Florida are inconsistent, and the Flamingo winner may not even go to Kentucky

26 Schussing Along Side by Side

For years amateurs raced against the clock, but the new dual course system is fast making strides

28 New Wrinkle for Some Old Faces

Drenched in nostalgia, we were ready for it in tennis. So here are all those great old guys, competing again

36 Our Finny Friends Are Junkies

Because sea creatures love debris, some of today's hot fishing spots resemble a neighborhood car dump

Baseball 1974

46 Henry Aaron is on deck, poised for the golden moment

48 Photographs recapture the Rose-Harrelson playoff flare-up

SCOUTING REPORTS

54 AMERICAN LEAGUE 60 NATIONAL LEAGUE

76 Bobby Bonds, already superb, intends to shock us all

100 The World's Greatest

That extravagant circus boast is precisely correct when used to describe Tito Gaona, king of the trapeze

The departments

- 16 Scorecard 92 Bridge
- 85 People 95 Hockey
- 86 Basketball 115 For the Record
- 90 Wrestling 116 19th Hole

SPORTS ILLUSTRATED is published weekly, except one issue at year end, by Time Inc., 541 North Fairbanks Court, Chicago, Ill. 60611; principal office Rockefeller Center, New York, N.Y. 10020; James R. Shepley, President; Clifford J. Grum, Treasurer; Charles B. Bear, Secretary. Second-class postage paid at Chicago, Ill. and at additional mailing offices. Authorized as second-class mail by the Post Office Department, Ottawa, Canada and for payment of postage in cash. Subscription price in the United States, Canada, Puerto Rico and the Caribbean islands $12.00 a year; military personnel anywhere in the world $8.50 a year; all others $16.00 a year.

Credits on page 115

MereMart.com®
Vintage Magazines for Special People

Next week

BASEBALL LEADS OFF with aces on the mound and Aaron on the mind in the first blaze of the season's action. A report on The Quest and other highlights of opening week.

THE MASTERS gets a satirical once-over from Artist Arnold Roth, after which Roy Blount Jr. scouts Augusta and relates how the annual doings affect the lives of the townsfolk.

THE WILD WET RUN in the canyons and rapids of the Rio Grande's desolate Big Bend was for scientific observation. Writer Edwin Shrake was asked along for the ride.

BASEBALL 1974

Sports Illustrated

APRIL 8, 1974

60 CENTS

ROSE OF THE REDS

