

On Our Cover. Recipes pictured will be great additions to picnics and potlucks. Find them on p. 27 and p. 41.

5 Potluck Pleasers. Great foods for summer gatherings include tasty turnovers and a yummy, sunny sheet cake.

6 Editor's Favorite Meal. Illinois field editor Catherine Dawe gives hearty lasagna a twist by adding zucchini.

8 Quiche Sampler. Four unique quiche variations from readers will set your lips smacking for a savory slice.

12 Men Who Run the Range. This quenching cooler is great with grilled foods, says one of our male cooks.

14 Meal in Minutes. In only a half hour, you can fix a fruit-topped ham steak, green beans and special dessert.

16 Cooking for One or Two. Recipes in this appetizing selection yield just enough for a couple or solo diner.

20 On a Budget. A tasty meat loaf dinner that costs only 99¢ per plate shows you can eat well on a shoestring.

22 Mom's Best Meal. A reader shares family recipes and mouth-watering memories of her mother's cooking.

25 Clip & Keep Cards. Find top winners from our contest, recipes for a crowd and more in this handy section.

43 Short-Order Cooks. Breakfast takes shape for Fourth of July when these twins make stars-and-stripes pancakes.

44 Marvelous Mushrooms. We've buttoned up some of the best mushroom recipes from our readers just for you.

48 Luau Theme. Don't miss this party's tropical food and fun, including an "island" centerpiece and Volcano Cake!

52 Just Desserts. Fitting finales—from fancy cookies to fruity seasonal favorites—fill three big pages this time.

60 Late-Night Snacks. Do you crave a sweet or savory treat to cap a long summer day? These will do the trick.

67 Recipe Index. This issue's recipes are listed by category on the inside back cover so you can easily find them.

Taste of Home

June/July 2003
$3.99 U.S./$4.99 Canada

The magazine edited by a thousand country cooks!

