

PUBLISHED MONTHLY IN THE TERRITORY OF ALASKA
BY ALASKANS

"HOLDING A MIRROR TO LIFE ON THE LAST FRONTIER"

The Alaska Sportsman

DEVOTED TO A FULLER
APPRECIATION OF THE GREAT OUTDOORS

VOLUME XXII

JUNE, 1956

NUMBER 6

ESKIMO MATRONS AT BARROW Cover
Color photograph of Julia Tutah and Lydia Itta by Emery F. Tobin.

LETTERS FROM OUR READERS A Department 4
Comments and compliments

SALMON GRAVEYARD Frontispiece 6
Photograph by Will Thompson

MAIN TRAILS AND BYPATHS Editorial 7
Opponents of "Statehood Now" say that costs of state government would bog down Alaska and prevent industrial development.

WHEN THE EARTH EXPLODED George B. Schaller 8
In 1912, in a desolate area of Alaska, Mount Katmai violently exploded, creating a strange and beautiful valley.

THE COSTLY STONE W. Z. Bradley as told 14 to Ralph A. Fisher, Sr.

A hunt that was apparently a failure from the beginning suddenly took a turn for the good, and the desired trophy was bagged.

COLD WATER BRAWLERS George Avery 18
A beautiful setting, a lost lake and rainbows that "took the flies right out of my hatband" added up to a perfect fishing trip.

HAPPY MEMORIES OF TRAPPING DAYS Charles Austel 20
A year trapping in the wilderness of Alaska gave two sourdoughs memories they could never forget.

KID IN THE KLONDIKE H. C. Heacock 22
He was only sixteen when he braved death and danger to seek his fortune in the fabulous Klondike.

FROM KETCHIKAN TO BARROW A Department 26
Items of current and historic interest about Alaska and Alaskans.

ALASKA ODDITIES Robert C. Wikstrom 33
A cartoon feature.
Other cartoon by William Hawes.

EMERY F. TOBIN, Editor and Publisher CLARA M. TOBIN, Managing Editor
B. G. OLSON,
Associate Editor and Advertising Manager

Editorial, Advertising and Circulation Offices, Box 118, Ketchikan, Alaska. Advertising representatives: Harley L. Ward, 360 North Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.; Fred H. Stern, 2602 Griffith Park Blvd., Los Angeles 39, Cal.; Larry Crosby, 4673 Delafield Ave., New York 71, N.Y., KI 8-5602; Robert O. Seal, 323 World Merchandise Mart Building, Second and Virginia, MAIN 3860, Seattle, Washington.

Published monthly by Alaska Magazine Publishing Company at Ketchikan, Alaska. Yearly subscription in U. S., Canada and South America, $3.50; 2 years, $6.00. Single copies, 35 cents. In foreign countries not included above, 50 cents a year additional. All rights reserved. Entered as second class matter December 19, 1934 at the post office at Ketchikan, Alaska under the Act of March 3, 1879. Additional entry, September 11, 1955. Copyright 1956 by Alaska Magazine Publishing Company. Trade Mark, "The Alaska Sportsman," Reg. U. S. Pat. Off. Printed in U. S. A. Subscribers must notify us of change of address four weeks in advance of next publication. Be sure to give both old and new addresses. The editors are glad to receive long and short subjects from Alaskans or writers who have visited Alaska. Fact articles about Alaska's outdoors, history or industries are wanted. Photographs for illustrations and frontispieces are wanted. Poetry is not wanted. Payment is made on publication. We cannot guarantee the return of photographs.

Count on COMFORT

when you fly
Pan American to

Alaska

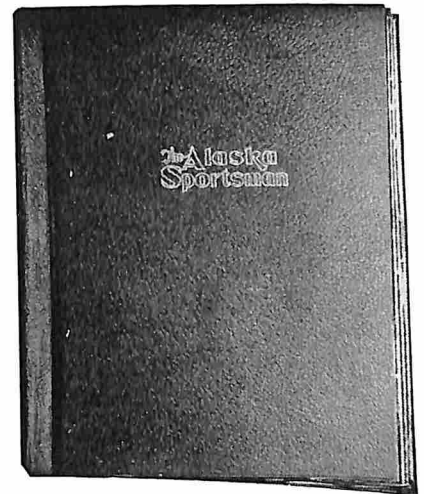

Fly to Alaska's leading cities in speedy pressurized Clippers°. Enjoy two-abreast seating on all flights...wide spacious aisles...lots of stretch-out room between seats. Dine on delicious hot meals expertly prepared and served. Low fares... daily flights from Seattle. For reservations, call your travel agent or nearest Pan American office.

PAN AMERICAN

WORLD'S MOST EXPERIENCED AIRLINE

*Trade-Mark, Pan American World Airways, Inc.

ALASKA SPORTSMAN "BINDERS"

Your Sportsman copies will be protected many years by LEATHERETTE BINDERS

"The Alaska Sportsman" printed in gold

Holds 12 copies
Inserted with strips of steel
Spring binders also available
$3.00 postpaid

THE ALASKA SPORTSMAN
Ketchikan, Alaska

ALASKA'S MAGAZINE

JUNE 1956

35¢

THE

Alaska Sportsman

 MereMart.com®
Gift Quality Vintage Magazines

WHEN THE EARTH EXPLODED

By George B. Schaller