

MARC ASHIN—SABA FOR TIME

Church and State: Spiriting prayer into schools (see NATION)

KIM KHULISH—SABA FOR TIME

Merger Fallout: BankAmerica employees wait for an explanation of the big deal (see COVER)

F. PROUSER—REUTERS

Looking Ahead: A talk with Robert Downey Jr. (see THE ARTS)

AMERICAN SCENE: The making of the three-bladed wonder	4
NOTEBOOK	17
WASHINGTON DIARY: Margaret Carlson on helper hubbies	22
TECHWATCH: Custom CDs; World White Web; wrist PC	24
MILESTONES	25

NATION

EDUCATION: Look Who's Praying	28
--------------------------------------	----

As politicians bicker over the separation of church and state, Christian kids are quietly reintroducing prayer into school

CLINTON'S CRISIS: Betty's Back in Town	32
---	----

Is Currie too loyal to say anything to hurt her boss? Or too honest to tell anything but the truth?

ENVIRONMENTALISTS: Turning Turtle	34
--	----

Free trade and globalization are the new enemies

BILL BRADLEY: Toward Campaign 2000?	36
--	----

But first the ex-Senator wants to be his party's conscience

DIVIDING LINE: A Triple Threat	38
---------------------------------------	----

Jack E. White on Clinton, jocks and race relations

WORLD

CAMBODIA: The End of Pol Pot	40
-------------------------------------	----

A master of genocide dies, just out of reach of justice

IRAN: The Mayor Is the Message	42
---------------------------------------	----

A hard-line tussle in Tehran is pointed at the "liberal" President

BUSINESS

COVER: The Giants Want Your Money	46
--	----

Fee, fie, foe ... run? But is there any escape from the megabanks? Technology is transforming the way Americans save and spend—and the bigger the bank, the better equipped it will be to handle all that whiz-bang finance. Size does matter

Software: The programs Microsoft has coming	52
--	----

Consumers: You may do better with a smaller bank	56
---	----

Money in Motion: Daniel Kadlec's outlook for bank stocks	58
---	----

SCIENCE AND SOCIETY

BEHAVIOR: The Personality Gene	60
---------------------------------------	----

Do certain genes make you gay? Addictive? A thrill seeker? If so, molecular psychologist Dean Hamer may have them all

ARCHAEOLOGY: The Gold of Thrace	62
--	----

A rare look at the buried treasure—and lost culture—from the mysterious land of poets and warriors north of ancient Greece

HEALTH: The Promise of Pilates	64
---------------------------------------	----

Celebrities and lots of new fans swear the regimen is magical

TECHNOLOGY: Under Bill Gates' Skin	65
---	----

Why is Microsoft so eager to get Larry Lessig off its case?

THE ARTS

CINEMA: With a new movie and just out of jail, Robert Downey Jr. says he's ready for the future. Can he make it?	66
---	----

Life takes a twist in the romantic comedy Sliding Doors

Taste of Cherry: a great movie in miniature	68
--	----

ART: Who knew? Victor Hugo was also a drafter	71
--	----

MUSIC: Sonic Youth, now older but just as radical as ever	73
--	----

Joyful sounds in the ska tradition	73
------------------------------------	----

BOOKS: Two mystery novels share a new m.o.	74
---	----

Lloyd finds humor in the ugliness of Big Business	75
---	----

A Patchwork Planet , another deft work from Anne Tyler	80
---	----

PRESS: Steve Brill declares himself a watchdog	83
---	----

PEOPLE: Jane Fonda's loose lip; O.J. goes bananas	85
--	----

ESSAY: Roger Rosenblatt on Katie Couric's class act	86
--	----

COVER: Digital illustration of card by Ed Gabel. Omnicard is a creation of TIME's editors and is not a real card of a real company

PERSONALITY GENES
SCHOOL PRAYER LIVES!

THE FUTURE OF MONEY

What the big mergers mean

Are banks really necessary?

Will Microsoft
control it all?

#BXDDJLXCARR-RT-SORTC040
#93720WLL01625F93#3 T5 CA24RL SEP98 0028
FLORENCE I WILLIS #02516
7625 N 1ST ST 177 P00217
FRESNO CA 93720-0959