

WILLIAM CAMPBELL FOR TIME

Collared: A judge puts Yellowstone wolves in new peril (see NATION)

DEBORAH FEINGOLD FOR TIME

Paradise Found: Toni Morrison's sprawling, controversial new novel (see COVER)

Death Row: Shareef Cousin is young and maybe innocent (see CRIME)

LETTERS.....	4
NOTEBOOK.....	9
WASHINGTON DIARY: Margaret Carlson on junkets.....	14
NETLY NEWS: Joshua Quittner on games families play.....	16
MILESTONES.....	19

NATION

ENVIRONMENT: The Crying of the Wolves.....	22
In one of history's most successful wildlife interventions, endangered gray wolves were re-established in Yellowstone three years ago. Now a federal judge threatens to undo it all
JUSTICE: Fits and Starts at the Unabom Trial.....	26
Is Kaczynski a brilliant manipulator or desperately confused?
Two Cities, Two Bombers: Terry Nichols and Ramzi Yousef.....	28
WHITE HOUSE: "A Ms. Jones to See You".....	29
The games have begun even before the suit goes to trial
MIAMI: Hurricane Hizzoner.....	30
Have Xavier Suarez's new powers gone to his head?
REPUBLICANS: Restless on the Right.....	32
Gary Bauer and his Christian Coalition pressure the party

WORLD

IRAN: Dealing with the "Great Satan".....	34
The country's President makes a televised diplomatic gesture toward the U.S. But just what is Tehran's message?
Essay: President Khatami on freedom, Iran and the West.....	36
FRANCE: On the Trail of the Fiat.....	40
A peek at the continuing investigation into Diana's death
LETTER FROM KOSOVO: The Next Balkan War.....	42
Albanian nationalism confronts Serbian domination

BUSINESS

AUTOS: Trying to Bring Back That Old Magic.....	44
Volkswagen rolls out the new Bug, but will a generation in love with muscle cars and trucks buy the cute little thing?
MAIL: No More Playing Post Office.....	46
It's profitable now, but can it keep up with E-mail and faxes?
MONEY IN MOTION: Gentlemen Prefer Bonds.....	48
Daniel Kadlec on prudent investing after strong stock growth
SOCIETY AND SCIENCE

CRIME: Should This Teen Die?.....	50
The U.S. remains one of the few countries that put juveniles on death row. At least one of them may be innocent
Condemned Woman: Born-again Karla Faye Tucker.....	56
SCIENCE: Mr. Seed's Clinic.....	58
An eccentric physicist's plan to clone humans ignites a furor
HEALTH: Hope for Heroin Addicts.....	59
The FDA may soon approve a promising new treatment
SPORT: The Divas This Time.....	60
The skating phenoms this winter are Kwan and Lipinski
Snowboarding: The master blaster shuns a new Olympic event.....	61

THE ARTS

COVER: The Great American Storyteller.....	62
Toni Morrison re-emerges with Paradise , her first novel since she won the Nobel Prize in 1993. But is the world still safe for literature? The author talks about art, fame, race—and Oprah
Prize and Minuses: The boons and banes of a Nobel.....	66
ART: A D.A. seizes works alleged to be Nazi loot.....	70
FASHION: Young black designers challenge Hilfiger's reign.....	71
A Charleston duo gives the Rebel flag a face-lift.....	72
APPRECIATION: Sonny Bono, 1935-1998.....	73
PEOPLE: Norm MacDonald's job; James Bond's Q.....	75
ESSAY: Charles Krauthammer on cloning body parts.....	76

COVER: Photograph for TIME by Deborah Feingold

TEENS ON DEATH ROW
YELLOWSTONE'S WOLF WAR

TIME

The Sound And the Fury of Toni Morrison

With her new novel Paradise, the Nobel laureate shows that she's the Great American Storyteller

MeretMart.com
Gift Quality Vintage Magazines