

GEORGE ESIRI—REUTERS

Demand for Democracy: Protesters fill the streets in Nigeria (see WORLD)

MICHAEL SEXTON FOR TIME

Masters of Their Domain Name: Jerry Yang and David Filo of Yahoo change retailing (see COVER)

BRIGITTE LACOMBE FOR TIME

What's Next? Tina Brown resigns, and the whole town talks (see PRESS)

AMERICAN SCENE: The Marine Band turns 200.....	8
NOTEBOOK	15
CALVIN TRILLIN on Kansas City steak.....	20
MILESTONES	21

NATION

EDUCATION: Making Teachers the Issue	22
Pols from both parties are looking for more accountability in the classroom. The unions are taking notice
Tenure: The case of Ms. God shows the problem.....	25
VERDICT: Swift and Efficient Justice	26
A $100,000 bounty offered by the National Enquirer leads to the quick conviction of the man who killed Bill Cosby's son
CRIME: A New York City Millionaire Vanishes	27
A mother-and-son team are the prime suspects

JUSTICE: Biological Favoritism	28
A court grants custody of a child to the natural mother, even though she's in jail for killing one of her other children

WORLD

NIGERIA: Democracy Now Has a Martyr	30
Imprisoned opposition leader Abiola dies of a heart attack
GERMANY: The Man Who Would Be Chancellor	32
Gerhard Schröder is running way ahead of Helmut Kohl
BRITAIN: The Prince and the Paramour	33
Over tea, William and Camilla meet for the first time

BUSINESS

COVER: The Cyberspace Marketplace	34
Americans are buying everything from books to wine on the Internet. The retail business will never be the same
Shopping: A guide to who's selling what and for how much.....	36
New Rich: Who's making the really big bucks.....	42

EXECUTIVES: CEO Retreats	44
Come tour the vacation camps of America's moguls

SOCIETY AND SCIENCE

FAMILY: Boys Will Be Boys	46
Two new books examine how to give boys a good footing
Population: An appeal for couples to have Maybe One child.....	47
SOCIETY: Transgenders on the Rise	48
Once ostracized, transsexuals are gathering political force
PRESS: Tina Brown Takes a Walk	50
The New Yorker editor creates the biggest buzz of all by resigning to take on a vague enterprise at Miramax. Hold on tight. This promises to be the greatest story ever spun
Finances: Big changes, but her magazine never made a dime.....	54

THE ARTS

SHOW BUSINESS: Chris Rock shows that a comedian can be really honest and really funny at the same time.....	56
TELEVISION: The (shh!) secret world of the Teletubbies.....	60
CINEMA: With a swish and a swoosh, Zorro rides to the rescue.....	62
Cameron Diaz brings gangly charm to a gross-out farce.....
MUSIC: Another red-hot producer steps up to the mike.....	63
BOOKS: Surveying the theories that try to explain Hitler.....	64
A memorable tale of the love between patient and nurse.....
Florence Harding, a titillating look at our 29th First Lady.....	65
Q+A: Karen Finley prefers Betty Crocker chocolate.....	65

PERSONAL TIME

YOUR HEALTH: Christine Gorman on walking during labor.....	67
YOUR MONEY: Daniel Kadlec on the versatile Roth IRA.....	68
YOUR TECHNOLOGY: Joshua Quittner on video e-mail.....	70
PEOPLE: The guard and Steve Jobs; Murdoch skips court.....	73
ESSAY: Roger Rosenblatt on race.....	74

COVER: Digital photomontage by Arthur Hochstein and Ed Gabel.
Jerry Wang photograph by Robert Holmgren.

TIME

KISS YOUR MALL GOODBYE

Online shopping is faster, cheaper and better

Plus: Hot stocks and brash billionaires

Jerry Yang
of Yahoo!

#BXBDJLXCARR-RT-SORTB001
#56567CRL99053097#3 T5 MN44R MAR99
MRS O A CARLSON 0011
#04907
P00186
BOX 53
NEW YORK MLS MN 56567-0053