

PIERCE/HASLER—NASA GODDARD LAB FOR ATMOSPHERES

The Worst Is Yet to Come: Worrying about the Big Blow (see SCIENCE)

SERGEI GUNEEV FOR TIME

Panic in the Air: As an economic mess deepens, Yeltsin's grip on power slips (see RUSSIA IN CRISIS)

ALJOSEPH CULTICE

Hip-Hop: Lauryn Hill strives to keep her fire and passion (see THE ARTS)

AMERICAN SCENE: The National Poetry Slam.....6

NOTEBOOK.....23

MILESTONES.....29

RUSSIA IN CRISIS

THE ECONOMY: Meltdown Threatens.....30

Calls to roll back the reforms of the past decade gather strength as Russia's economy quakes and Yeltsin's government shifts, causing markets to slide around the world. Acting Prime Minister Chernomyrdin vows to stay the course

MOSCOW: Who's Really in Charge?.....36

Yeltsin has already lost much of his political clout, while newly rich businessmen and the Old Guard are on the rise

WORLD MARKETS: Panic from Tokyo to Rio.....38

As uncertainty spreads around the globe, investors lose billions

NATION

WHITE HOUSE: You Call This a Vacation?.....40

From Martha's Vineyard, Clinton tries to rebuild support with Democrats, who have been distancing themselves from him

Wordsmith: A literary lawyer will write the Starr report.....42

TERROR: The FBI Moves Fast on the Bombings.....45

Two suspects are arrested in the attack on the embassy in Kenya

WORLD

BRITAIN: The Grief Goes On.....46

A year after her death, the royal family, her country and the world begin to realize that no one will ever replace Diana

BUSINESS

TELEVISION: Here Come Two New Networks.....52

Bud Paxson and Barry Diller are launching new television networks. Why?

PORNOGRAPHY: Moving into the Mainstream.....54

X-rated is for profits, not just for men in long raincoats

SOCIETY AND SCIENCE

LAW: The Bad Samaritan.....59

A California case focuses attention on the duty of a bystander who sees a crime being committed

CRIME: Anger over the JonBenet Investigation.....60

With the gumshoes going nowhere, a couple who were once very close to the Ramseys send out an open letter of protest

SCIENCE: Waiting for Hurricane X.....62

Bonnie wasn't the Big One—but sooner or later, it's coming

Into Thick Air: Pilots probe the storm, looking for answers.....66

SPORT: The Gang of Four in Women's Tennis.....68

Teens force the old ladies—ages 22 to 35—to pick up their game

THE ARTS

MUSIC: Lauryn Hill is the Queen of Hip-Hop. Her hot new solo album shows why she should reign for a long time.....70

CINEMA: Remaking Psycho, with Hitchcock's, er, approval.....74

The fine, subtle Without Limits faces an uphill battle.....75

Recalling the Studio 54 carnival of drugs, booze and sex.....75

BOOKS: Joyce Maynard tells on J.D. Salinger.....76

Edwidge Danticat's powerful tale of blood and loss.....78

Two writers whose work transcends geography.....79

SHORT TAKES: Brash, flashy Korn; smart, tart Slums.....80

ART: William Sidney Mount, America's first genre painter.....84

PERSONAL TIME

YOUR HEALTH: Christine Gorman on McGwire's steroid use.....87

YOUR MONEY: Daniel Kadlec on when to take a tax loss.....88

YOUR TECHNOLOGY: Joshua Quittner tries two-way pagers.....90

PEOPLE: Daryl Hannah as a brunette; Howard Stern on TV.....93

ESSAY: Michael Kinsley on born-again spinmeisters.....94

COVER: Illustration for TIME by C.F. Payne

INSETS: Prince William by Kelvin Bruce—Nunn Syndication; Hurricane Bonnie by Pierce/Hasler—NASA Goddard Lab for Atmospheres—data from NOAA; Lauryn Hill by Marc Baptiste—Outline

THE ROYALS
AFTER DIANA

THE SCIENCE OF HURRICANES

LAURYN HILL GOES SOLO

TIME

Comrades In Trouble

Russia's crumble sends jitters
around the world. And Clinton thought he had problems.

#BXBDJLXCARR-RT-SORTC040
#93720WLL01625F93#3 T5 C024R9 OCT99
FLORENCE I WILLIS 0009
#02443
7625 N 1ST ST 177 P00186
FRESNO CA 93720-0959