AUGUST 2001 VOL 8, NO.8

Features

30 Kryptonite Crusher
Super Dave Rumping's only weakness is going fast

86 Pro 4.6
J.R. Granatelli explodes onto the modular scene with a seven-second timeslip

116 An Equitable Arrangement
Lidio Iacobelli got paint, Steve Mulligan got power

120 Along Came a Racer
Think Steve Perkins was going to preserve this factory racer as a museum piece?

143 When Worlds Collide
When an SVT Cobra meets Saleen, the numbers are low and the performance is high

On the Cover
Chuck James caught Super Dave Rumping in the act of smoking two slicks in a single burnout. After shooting the car smoking the tires and without a hood, Chuck turned the photos over to Marty McHugh for a bit of Photoshop dual-exposure magic.

156 A Labor of Love
Joe Beard's investment in time yields returns behind the wheel

164 Water-Injected Wonder
New technology meets old-fashioned know-how in a '92 sedan
