"Hurry up, honey...this tub won't take me long!"

"IT'S a joy," busy mothers tell us, "to find a cleanser that gets bathtub 'rings' and dirt off as quickly and easily as Bon Ami."

You'll say it's a joy, too, to find a cleanser as safe as Bon Ami is.

For Bon Ami does not depend on harsh grit for its quick-cleansing properties. Instead of scratching bathtubs and sinks, Bon Ami actually polishes as it cleans... leaves them sparkling.

Isn't it sensible to use a cleanser that is both thorough and safe...to use Bon Ami, as thousands of women do, for all your household cleaning?

Why not spare your hands?

Remember, you not only clean quickly and easily with Bon Ami, but you spare your hands in the bargain. For Bon Ami does not rely on harsh, irritating caustics. As a result, it doesn't roughen or redden your hands.
