OLD FASHIONED NEIGHBORLINESS

We open our homes to the men in service and ask them to dinner or a barbecue with the family—let's do as much for the homesick woman

ETHEL McCALL HEAD

Can you begin to imagine what it means to the soldier's wife who has been waiting three months for a letter to be asked in for a cup of tea? To the wife of a young sailor to bring her baby and have Sunday dinner "in a real home" after months of living in a single room? Or to the new neighbor down the street just to hear the friendliness that goes with a few pointers on where to buy vegetables or have a suit cleaned or what doctor to call in an emergency? Our communities are filled with women who have followed their soldier husbands to new bases, or their civilian husbands to war jobs—and with women carrying on alone while their men are overseas. This is our chance to put good, old-fashioned friendliness into prac-

THIS GENERATION DOES ITS BEST, BUT CONVERSATION IS ONE-SIDED
