Presenting Second Amendment Commemorative .44 Magnum

"The right of the people to keep and bear arms, shall not be infringed."

Second Amendment

To arms collectors, hunters, shooters and Americans proud of their independence, the Second Amendment—"The Right to Keep and Bear Arms"—is our most precious freedom. But now this important right is under attack more than ever. To memorialize our firearms freedom, The American Historical Foundation is proud to offer the Second Amendment Commemorative .44 Magnum.

The .44 Magnum was selected because of its famous, long reign as the world's most powerful handgun. The Wesson was chosen because it is the ultimate in American .44 Magnum revolvers. It is the biggest: at 15" overall, with a 10" barrel, it weighs four pounds. With its removable barrel, adjustable-stop trigger, front-mounted cylinder latch, replaceable front sight and deeply machine-broached rifling, it is the most advanced. These features helped Wesson revolvers win the IHMSA Silhouette Championships seven times in an eight year period.

Bill Jordan Trooper Grip

This is the first commemorative .44 Magnum ever issued with a custom-fitted burl walnut Bill Jordan Trooper Grip.

From a collecting viewpoint, this is destined to be an important classic. It is the first .44 Magnum commemorative with full coverage of elaborate gun art. You can select from two limited edition models: the Deluxe Museum Edition and the Collector's Edition.

Deluxe Museum Edition of 750

The Deluxe Museum Edition is the first .44 Magnum ever issued with full coverage of 24-Karat Gold plating and detailed 19th Century gun art. Never has a .44 Magnum received such lavish embellishment.

This edition is strictly limited to only 750. Each is serially numbered from 001 to 750 with the prefix 2AD for "Second Amendment, Deluxe."

Collector's Edition of 1500

The Collector's Edition is also given full coverage of classic gun art. Each Revolver in this edition of only 1500 is mirror polished and deeply blued to a gloss-black finish. In contrast to the dark blueing, 10 components are polished and plated with 24-Karat Gold, and the barrel inscription is gold-gilt inlaid. Each is serially numbered from 0001 to 1500 with the prefix 2AC for "Second Amendment, Collector's."

A Firing Handgun

This is a firing handgun that could be used to defend your home and family. It's also a precision-made, highly accurate target pistol that you could shoot to win in competition.

Each is issued with a Certificate of Authenticity attesting to the serial number, edition limit and purity of the 24-Karat Gold.
