THE NRA

The National Rifle Association of America is a nonprofit organization supported by the membership fees of public-spirited citizens. Its purposes are to educate and train citizens of good repute in the safe and efficient handling of firearms; to foster a knowledge of small arms and the ability to use them among members of law enforcement agencies and the armed services, and all other citizens who would be subject to service in the event of war; to promote social welfare and public safety, law and order, and the national defense. Membership in NRA is available to any reputable citizen of the United States upon nomination by a current member.

BOOKS

I've enjoyed recently

Good books are even better when you tell your friends about them. So:

COMPLETE BOOK OF HUNTING (Maco 75¢, 144 pgs.) Larry Koller's brilliant job of condensing major North American hunting. Everything from ruffed grouse to bear; rifles, "ammo," archery, glasses, sights, mounts. 20 chapters... profusely, beautifully illustrated. Grand buy!

BINOCULARS TELESCOPES & TELESCOPIC SIGHTS (Greenberg $9.50, 528 pgs.) Truman Henson has written an amazingly practical book. Vital facts of 3 great outdoor optical aids—interestingly presented. Selection, design, construction, tools, materials, cleaning, repair. 26 chapters. 276 drawings, photos, tables. Particulars of over 100 models. Easy if you like physics and are curious about optics.

Re-read William Beebe's classic HIGH JUNGLE (Duell, Sloan, Pearce $5.00, 379 pgs.) Rewarding, stimulating to every outdoorsman. Leader of over 40 expeditions, the great naturalist-scientist introduces you unforgettably to the wild fowl, insects, animals of the Venezuelan jungles. 40 beautiful photos intensify Beebe's powerful prose; fill one with the complexity and wonder of our physical world. When a book is almost better than being there—what more can we ask?

* Auto Celebrity says:

Since owning my Bushnell's, I've been Judge or Referee at many AAA Championship races. With my featherweight Rangemaster I get clear, sharp views of "tangles" (sometimes as many as 7 cars) even a half mile away! They're the finest binoculars it has been my pleasure to use.
