THE NRA

The National Rifle Association of America is a nonprofit organization supported by the membership fees of public-spirited citizens. Its purposes are to educate and train citizens of good repute in the safe and efficient handling of firearms; to foster a knowledge of small arms and the ability to use them among members of law enforcement agencies and the armed services, and all other citizens who would be subject to service in the event of war; to promote social welfare and public safety, law and order, and the national defense. Membership in NRA is available to any reputable citizen of the United States upon nomination by a current member.

COVER

In Alabama turkeys are hunted in the spring. U. S. Border Patrolman Bill Jordan uses a 'drilling' on that colorful bird because it gives him either a bullet or shot. Other suitable arms are discussed on page 22. Transparency by Phil Roettinger
