The Elvis Presley® .45 T

The left side features a trio of portraits including two of Elvis from his days as a tanker with the Armored Division and a classic portrait of Elvis, the entertainer, an image which brings back our cherished memories of this legendary singer. Featured in bold letters is "Elvis Presley", a name that thrilled audiences whenever it appeared on posters, billboards, and marquees around the world. You'll also find the "TCB" logo on both sides of the slide. Together with a lightning bolt, this logo translates to "Taking Care of Business in a Flash," an idea that encapsulates both the charisma and character of this magnetic entertainer. TCB was an idea and credo that Elvis adopted and shared with his closest friends.

On the right side, you'll find two detailed portraits featuring the dashing young Elvis in his Army uniform, and an image of Elvis playing the guitar. Displayed prominently across a banner is an authentic recreation of Elvis Presley's distinctive signature, a legendary autograph coveted by his legions of adoring fans. Elvis was not only an unforgettable performer; he was a patriotic American who answered the call to duty when he was drafted by the U.S. Army.

Caliber: .45 ACP Edition Limit: 500 Model: Colt® Government Model®

When you remember Elvis Presley, you certainly remember his music, the way he lit up the big screen, and how he captured hearts with nothing more than a smile. When you remember Elvis, you remember a superstar, a legendary performer who changed music, and will rule forever as the undisputed "King of Rock and Roll." Throughout his career, Elvis sold over one billion records, starred in 33 films, and became an icon of 20th century pop culture.

Elvis Presley, the entertainer, loomed larger than life, but to the people who knew him the best, there was nobody more down to Earth. He loved his parents. He was generous and loyal to his friends. He cared deeply for his legions of fans around the world, and when it came to his country, Elvis was proud to be an American.

As you probably know, Elvis' popularity was unmatched at the time he received notice that he had been drafted into the U.S. Army. Today, the photographs of his Army induction bring back bittersweet memories. As his music career was skyrocketing, Rock's first and most enduring idol was transformed into Private, U.S. Army, serial number 53310761.

On March 24, 1958, Elvis reported to the office of the Memphis Draft Board and was inducted into the U.S. Army. Greeted by throngs of fans, reporters, and photographers, Elvis became center stage in what is probably the most famous induction ever.

Now, to honor Elvis and his service to his country, America Remembers is proud to present a handsome limited edition pistol officially authorized by Elvis Presley Enterprises, Inc.: The Elvis Presley® .45 Tribute Pistol.
