Car C

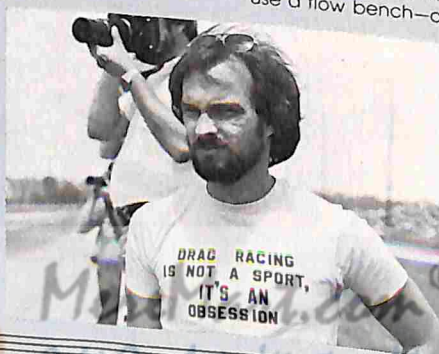

September 1982 Volume 30 Number 9

72. Trapped by a sea of voracious open-hooded street machines our heroine looked frantically for help. With none forthcoming she did the only thing possible. Carefully she washed and waxed each car present at the Street Machine Nationals NorCal. Now, if you believe that one, we've got some land in the Everglades we'd like to talk to you about. After you read this story, that is.

36. "Okay, that's enough vacuum," shouted Rick, but it was already too late for neighbor Ingemar Yorgaborga, who'd been sucked into Rick's dynamite new flow bench. Now, after disposing of the grisly remains, Voegelin outlines how to properly use a flow bench—on cylinder heads that is.

86. Eagerly he watched as yet another pair of fuel burners edged to the line, his nostrils distended as he greedily inhaled more of the exotic nitro fumes. Yes, for many people drag racing is more obsession than sport, and after a race as good as the Springnationals, who can blame them? Little Tommy Dufur tries his hand as a writer and succeeds. Good race. Good story.
