COVER: The '84 Talladega 500 was one of the most closely contested Grand National events in recent times. A dozen drivers exchanged the lead 68 times during the race before Dale Earnhardt came home the winner. Dozier Mobley captured the hard-fought action for this month's cover. The complete story begins on page 26. Equally exciting was the CART Michigan 500, marked by close racing and savage crashes. Mario Andretti drove a brilliant, come-from-behind race to win, and Steve Snoddy captured him at speed for our cover. Joe Scalzo's full story starts on page 36.
