THE COVER

Part of the Good Living that accompanies ranch life in the Rockies is the opportunity to ride into the high valleys and catch a panful of trout. Peter Hurd, No. 1 painter of the Southwest, has just that sort of deal at his ranch home in New Mexico, where he was born and has spent most of his life. For a fellow with paintings in New York's Metropolitan Museum, Chicago's Art Institute, and Kansas City's William Rockhill Nelson Gallery of Art, he's surprisingly well posted on Herefords, range grasses and irrigated pastures.

The names of characters in all short stories and serials are fictitious. Any resemblance to living persons is a coincidence.
