

Honest Furniture.

It's the truth. We do make honest furniture at Habersham Plantation. Furniture that looks like it did years ago because we've stayed with the primitive American traditions of handcrafted design that are timeless. There are no phony veneers or simulations, just the beauty of the wood and strength of the lines. It looks honest.

There's also the integrity of our craftsmen that shows up somewhere on each piece of Habersham Plantation furniture, because each piece is signed by the hand that made it.

When you consider you're getting hand-made furniture that is the antique of tomorrow, it's an honest value. And every piece is available to you through the nearest Habersham Plantation Country Store or dealer. We think you'll be impressed by the way it's made. Honest.
