*"The nature of God has not changed. In all these centuries
he is still the same"*

Older people have told me, "I would hate to be a young person today, having to grow up in this society." I think that in every generation, as people get older, they look at young people and wonder how they will make it. Somehow the young people do make it, but they make it much better if they have God with them.

People, especially young people, are trying to find purpose and meaning in their lives.

I speak at colleges and universities all over the world, and I find that young people are serious-minded. They think about things that we don't realize they are thinking about.

Jesus said, "There shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken."<sup>1</sup>

The word "distress" means to be pressed. The word "perplexed" means no way out. Jesus said that a coming generation will be pressed, and
