THE LUTHERAN WITNESS

A magazine for the laypeople of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod
FEBRUARY 1994 (ISSN: 0024-757X) Vol. 113, No.2

FEATURES

3 Isaiah's Mighty Chapter by David Strand

Martin Luther called Isaiah 53 "one of the most glorious passages" in all of Scripture. In view of what these verses have since inspired, the Reformer's claim is hard to dispute.

6 Thy Kingdom Come . . . in Kazakhstan by David. L. Mahsman

"In all of my career, I have never seen such openness to the Gospel," says veteran missionary Ted Kuster of people he's met in Kazakhstan. The Missouri Synod does not want to miss that opportunity for Gospel proclamation.

8 The Challenge of Blended Families by Lonni Collins Pratt

Blending two families into one is no easy task. But with God's help, it can be done.

10 One Confirmation in the Presence of God by Cathryn Schufreider

A 12-year-old boy stands before his congregation to give voice to his faith. He doesn't stand there alone.

11 'A Little Bit of Love' by Walt Stromer

Who would have guessed the effect a simple "Thank you" would have on the stern schoolmaster?

12 The Conviction of Capt. Supriyadi by Janelle Dryden

When the skipper of the Lucky Number One went to prison for trying to smuggle Chinese aliens into the U.S., God was waiting for him.
