13.11 THE TRAVEL ISSUE

42 TRIPPING

Why we decided to devote this issue to travel. Read on and—we promise—you'll enjoy the trip.

44 R&R

After losing his job and his mentor and saving the Titans' 2009 season, VINCE YOUNG needed a breather. A dose of sun and surf in the Caribbean did the trick.

BY CARMEN RENEE THOMPSON

56 COOL PLACES TO GO, DEAD PEOPLE TO SEE

From the birthplace of frog-jumping to Babe Ruth's grave, our trusty travel guide hits 33 places every sports fan must visit. BY AMANDA ANGEL

62 ON TO THE NEXT ONE

For Joe Gibbs Racing, most of the driving occurs on highways, not speedways. We tailed Gibbs' NASCAR teams from Talladega to Richmond for a look at the roads to the races. BY RYAN MCGEE

70 MEET ME IN ST. MAARTEN

High times on the high seas—the Cards and their fans have been cruising since 1986. BY SHAUN ASSAEL

78 "LET THEM KNOW WE'RE HERE"

Will U.S. soccer fans hold their own in the frenzied stands of South Africa? A traveling band of Yankee rabble-rousers are already making noise.

BY TIM STRUBY

86 HOT BOXED

To find the world's dumbest athletic competition, one author traveled all over the planet. His search heated up in Finland. BY RICK REILLY

92 POSTCARDS FROM THE EDGE

Take athletes, add free time at hotels, and what do you get? Tales involving alcohol, groupies and ... diapers? BY EDDIE MATZ

96 CANDLES, CHECK. CANDY, CHECK. BIBLE, CHECK. CONDOMS, CHECK.

Jocks pack some wacky goodies for road trips. Let's take a look inside their luggage! BY SAM ALIPOUR
