NBA PREVIEW

64 FLIP THIS LEAGUE

Trouble and the NBA have been married longer than Bill and Hillary. And like any relationship, there are ups and downs—and that's just how it is. BY CHUCK KLOSTERMAN

72 A FRESH COAT

For the past nine seasons, PAUL PIERCE has had to be a one-man band for the Celtics. With the arrival of rock stars KEVIN GARNETT and RAY ALLEN, he's part of a trio that can make Boston pop. BY CHRIS BROUSSARD

81 BLUEPRINT FOR SUCCESS

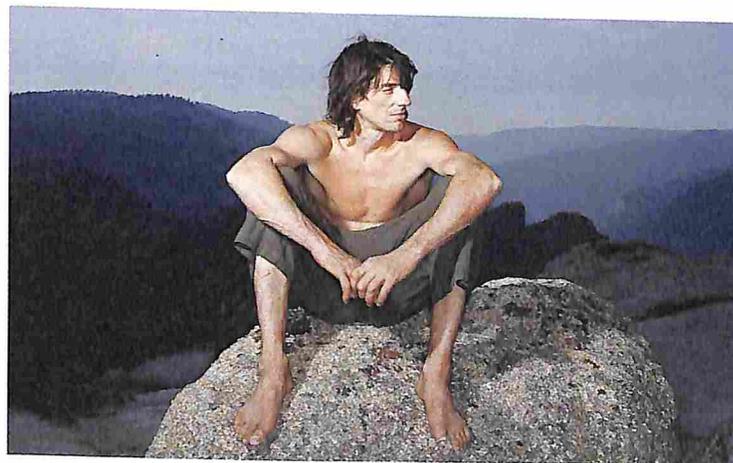

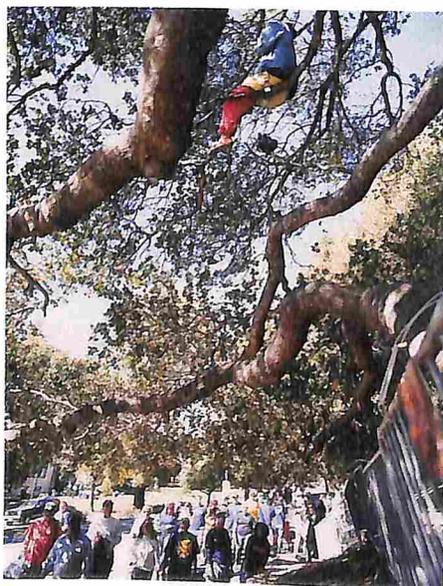

Now that they've done everything from improving curb appeal (Rockets) to gut renovations (Sonic), 30 clubs are ready to raise the roof on the 2007-08 edition.

54 HAPPINESS IS A WARM GUN

For defensive tackle Tank Johnson, owning guns has always been about more than security. It's a rush. Without that—and in a new city—the newest Cowboy feels very alone. BY SETH WICKERSHAM

102 UPSET IN THE MAKING

Think Cal fans are wild? Meet the BUZZ-KILLS who live outside (and above) Memorial Stadium. Their campaign to block a new football facility has school officials up a tree. BY TIM KEOWN

106 JUST LET IT GO

Oregon QB Dennis Dixon had to learn to fail on the baseball field before he could manage to succeed on the gridiron. BY ALYSSA ROENIGK

112 MASTERS OF THE UNIVERSE

To: MLB GMs

From: BUSTER OLNEY

The two best players in the world might be available this winter, along with many other stars. What are you waiting for?

120 THE MAN WHO THINKS HE CAN FLY

When rock-climbing/BASE-jumping/highlining sensation DEAN POTTER has a bad day, it can really (really) hurt. BY KATIE ARNOLD

128 "I'D LIKE TO HAVE THE GERMAN LEG"

Just your usual pro-volleyball-in-Cambodia-played-by-land-mine-victims kind of story. Not so familiar with it? You'll want to be. BY CHRISTOPHER COX
