HOT AND COOL

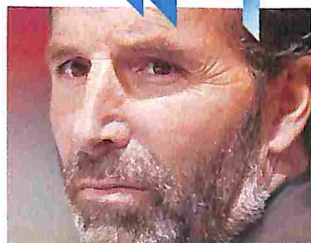

Dwyane Wade. Danica Patrick. We won't lie to you. The jocks in our Hot/Cool package are here because they look good—Brangelina good. But it's not just the six-pack abs and Sassoon hair that got them on our list. The hot ones put the sizzle in now. The cool ones? Think forever.

82 JOHNNY TORTS

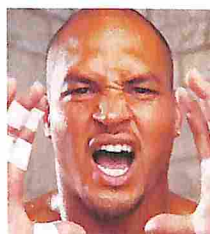

Lightning coach John Tortorella has waited 16 months to defend the Stanley Cup. You think he isn't ready?

BY ERIC ADELSON

90 SHOCK OF THE NEW

Player moves, new faces, rule changes: it's enough to make a fan dizzy. Here's the lowdown on all 30 teams—and why we like Jarome Iginla's Flames for the Cup.

50 DO YOU KNOW ME?

He doesn't mind the anonymity; he might just prefer it. But James Farrior's game is making him impossible to ignore.

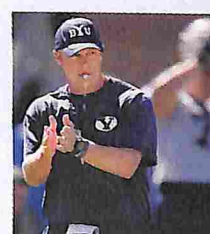

BY CARMEN RENEE THOMPSON

56 THREE-WAY CALLING

As their teams drive to the wire, ex-mates Mark Mulder, Tim Hudson and Barry Zito have a lot to talk about.

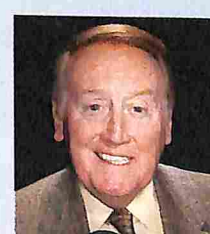

BY MYCHAEL URBAN

102 A QUESTION OF FAITH

BYU coach Bronco Mendenhall always dreamed of playing for the Cougars. He'll have to settle for saving them.

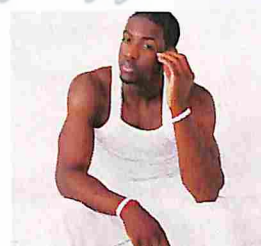

BY CHAD NIELSEN

110 ALONE IN THE BOOTH

For 56 years, Vin Scully has made baseball fans everywhere feel special, while claiming he's not. He's wrong.

BY ERIC NEEL

76 ALL THAT

It's no surprise that Dwyane Wade can be hot and cool. He's convinced us there's nothing he can't do—while staying humble just the same.
