Features

The Confessions of Carrie Underwood 24

American Idol's best-selling (and very private) singer talks candidly about those awards-show scandals, country music's "haters"—and nosy Victoria's Secret shoppers. BY DAVE KARGER

Leaving the Crime Scene 30

After seven (often tumultuous) years, Jorja Fox finally calls it quits on CSI. In an exclusive interview, she explains why she's left TV's top-rated show. BY LYNETTE RICE

You Say You Want a Revolution 34

Madonna dumps her longtime label for millions, while Radiohead let fans download their new album for a song. One week of maverick moves could forever change the music industry. BY ROB BRUNNER

How to Make a Monster 41

In 2001, Mel Brooks stormed Broadway with The Producers. Now, he Igorly returns with the Transylvanian romp Young Frankenstein. BY CLARK COLLIS
