ON THE COVER

With help from Editorial Director Jim Campisano, we give you the inside scoop on the 2010 Camaro's first drive, what it feels, smells, and even tastes like. Yeah that's right ... with Brembos at all four corners, you'll be burying faces in the dash like it was a fragrant lotus patch. And when you hit the go-pedal, you'll be leaving skull indentations in those well-sculpted seats. The wait is over, it's finally here! (Photos compliments of GM.)
