LIFE'S COVER

Thirty-year-old Mrs. James A. Walsh Jr., civilian administrative supervisor for the Air Force's New Haven Filter Center, is one of 250 civilian volunteers who man this vital link in Aircraft Warning System and the nation's air defense (pp. 77-89). As supervisor Mary Walsh recruits volunteers, gets them to classes, assigns them to jobs. When an Air Force test is on, she dons her striped-apron uniform and works backbreaking hours. Her husband, who is factory manager for the Armstrong Rubber Company, recently signed up as a member of the auxiliary police, found himself learning to tie bandages.

YOU ARE INVITED TO ACCEPT A

Trial Membership

IN THE HERITAGE CLUB

Now, and for a period of five months only, you may TRY OUT this cooperative plan by which you obtain a unique collection of the world's classics, especially illustrated by the world's great artists and well-printed on fine papers—for the same price as ordinary novels!

THE MEMBERS OF THE HERITAGE CLUB regularly come into possession of those "classics which are our heritage from the past, in editions which will be the heritage of the future." They come into possession of books beautifully illustrated, printed on papers tested to assure a life of at least two centuries, and staunchly bound and boxed.

If you try this system, you will in the coming months receive just five books, at a cost of only $3.65 each—or only $3.28 each if you pay in advance. Then, when the members receive the Prospectus for the next annual series, that Prospectus will go to you; and you can then decide, after you will have had five of the books, whether you want to continue.

During your Trial Membership you will receive War and Peace by Tolstoy, in a wonderful thick volume of 1760 pages and with profuse illustrations by Vasily Verestchagin and Fritz Eichenberg; Great Expectations by Dickens, with illustrations by the English painter Ardizzone; The House of the Seven Gables by Hawthorne, illustrated in color by Valenti Angelo; and Bacon's Essays; and, in a big beautiful volume, Through the Looking-Glass printed with Alice in Wonderland.

BEFORE YOU BEGIN to read this advertisement, just take a look at some of the books you have purchased during the past year. Now that you have read them, how many of them will you read again? How many of them could vanish from your home without being missed by you? If then you realize that most of the books you buy these days have been put aside never to be looked at again, you will know how good an idea it is that you should this year come into possession of books that you will want to read, and read over and over again: of books you will take pride in having in your home.

You are given an opportunity to do so, at this moment. For you are invited to accept a Trial Membership in The Heritage Club, which will cover a period of five months. This is because there is a scarcity of paper in this country: paper pulp, too, has gone to war. Of the high quality of paper which The Heritage Club uses, the supply is so limited as to force us to gnash our teeth in fury. We have been promised just enough additional paper to enable one thousand new members to receive the beautiful, beautiful Heritage books during the coming five months.

NEVER in the history of book publishing has a greater bargain been offered to wise buyers of books. The Trial Membership gives you an opportunity to put this statement to the test. Please fill out the coupon printed herewith and mail it to The Heritage Club promptly. You will then receive the Prospectus which describes the Club's system and the books you will receive; and a Trial Membership will be reserved for you.

Please send me a copy of your Prospectus, in which are described The Heritage Club's cooperative system of distribution and also the books to be distributed to the Trial Members during the coming five months.
