LIFE'S COVER

The hangover victim on LIFE's cover this week was drawn by Robert C. Osborn, cartoonist and illustrator who is preparing a book of drawings and comment to be called Drink—Its Joys and Sorrows. The cover drawing shows what it feels like to have a hangover headache, one of the five classic symptoms of this malady. Medical science's latest findings on the hangover, which until recently was thought to be a subject fit only for wry laughter, are discussed in an article beginning on p. 106, written by Lincoln Barnett (author of The Universe and Dr. Einstein) and Henry C. Clark.

The following list, page by page, shows the source from which each picture in this issue was gathered. Where a single page is indebted to several sources, credit is recorded picture by picture (left to right, top to bottom) and line by line (lines separated by dashes) unless otherwise specified.

I dreamed I stopped at a Sidewalk Cafe in my*

maidenform bra

I came to watch the world pass by...but passersby refuse to pass! They linger on the sidelines to marvel over my lines...
so smart, so secure, so chic in my Maidenform! Of course it's incredibly flattering, gives me a really sensational lift...

(my Maidenform, I mean!)
