Looking like a middle-age choir boy at the same time, best known for the controversies he seems addicted to, Daniel Patrick Moynihan is an original. He is now the "Kennedy Democrat" in the Republican President's Cabinet. Remember the Moynihan Report? His analysis of black problems angered many people. And Nixon's proposal for welfare reform? The idea started with Moynihan, and some liberals felt their fire has been stolen. "Benign neglect"? Who will ever forget it? Read The Odd Alliance: Moynihan and "The Robber Barons," page 18.
