THE LUTHERAN WITNESS

A magazine for the laypeople of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod

APRIL 1996 (ISSN: 0024-757X) VOL. 115, NO. 4

FEATURES

3 'Be Prepared to Give an Answer'

by Donald L. Deffner

What can we say when disaster strikes? Good Friday and Easter give us our cue.

7 Faith's Treasure

by Bert Minkin

Much was lost in the great San Francisco Earthquake, which struck 90 years ago this month. But one treasure could not be destroyed.

9 What a Sunday!

by Armand J. Boehme

Uncle Hiram's visit was unexpected, to say the least.

11 How Can I Help a Recovering Friend?

by Cindy Appel

Alcoholics, drug abusers and those with other addictions cry out for help from Christian friends and loved ones.

13 We Believe, Teach and Confess . . . We Can't Decide to Believe

by Thomas Manteufel

We humans can exercise a lot of freedom—whether or not to eat or drink or to visit a friend, for example. But we don't have the natural willpower to believe in Jesus Christ.
