A REPORTER AT LARGE The Truth of El Mozote..... Mark Danner
Even in the most brutal phase of El Salvador's civil war, the people of El Mozote trusted the Army. But in December of 1981 its Atlacatl Battalion, which had been trained by the United States, set out to kill every man, woman, and child in the village. The murders could not have come at a worse time for Washington. The reports were denied—for more than a decade. Then, slowly, the evidence emerged that confirmed the terrible truth.
