Charles Schwab
We give you more ways to succeed.

"Dad is conservative. I'm aggressive. He plays it safe. I take chances now and then. But despite our differences, we both agree on one thing. Schwab."

"Dad likes blue chips. I like microchips. But we both like Schwab."

Schwab offers each of us everything we need.

For instance, Dad likes blue chips, CDs and treasuries. He buys zero coupon bonds and munis. He finds everything he wants at Schwab. And more.

I like high growth funds. Schwab offers me my choice of over 450 no-load and low-load mutual funds.

I like speculative high-tech stocks. If it's traded in the U.S., I can get it through Schwab.

We even place our trades differently.

Dad likes dealing one-on-one with people. He goes down to the branch to make a trade. Or calls a Schwab Rep on the phone.

I like the more direct approach.

Choices for Any Portfolio

- Stocks: All U.S. Exchanges
- Munis
- Zeros
- Treasuries
- Corporate Bonds
- Over 450 No-Load and Low-Load Mutual Funds*
- And More

* Prospectuses Available

So I place most of my trades myself, through my computer, using Schwab's Equalizer® software.

Schwab lets us both be financial wizards.

Sure, we have different styles. But I've watched Dad do very well with his investment decisions. And he's seen me make some pretty good ones too. Of course, by making our own decisions, we save on commissions, which means we can make money on smaller market moves.

Dad and I may make different decisions, but Schwab gives us the edge we need to succeed.
