Amplifying System.

Some hair isn't very impressive. It's too fine. Limp. Looks skimpy. Hair like this needs help from a special source of power. It needs Clinique's Hair Structurizer.

Hair Structurizer is the booster for fine limp hair. It increases body to make hair look thicker, sturdier, bouncier. Adds protein to protect, to smooth and shine. Has moisture-resisters to help hold shape, even on humid days.

Spray on Hair Structurizer after every hair-wash. Comb through. Blow dry. What you get: the look of more hair, more substantial hair, more manageable hair.

Find Hair Structurizer at any Clinique counter—where you also find your regular skin care and the famous Clinique Computer.

Hair Structurizer is the simple system that can amplify any hair. It turns up the volume.
