Control freak.

You know the type. Needs everything to be perfect. In order. And won't stop 'til it is. Which is what makes Clinique's new Moisture In-Control so ideal for oilier skin. It keeps everything under control. Too much oil? It minimizes it. Uneven texture? It equalizes it. And because even oilier skin needs hydration at times, in certain places, Moisture In-Control accomplishes that too. But of course, not too much. And in its own measured way. In fact, Moisture In-Control's unique technology is so focused on keeping oilier skin in a wonderfully even place, you might call it totally obsessive. Or, you might call it your new best friend. Clinique. Allergy Tested. 100% Fragrance Free.
