FEATURES

58 Hypermusic! Do they laugh when you sit down at the piano? Exotic hyperinstruments allow even the tone-deaf to play like pros.

72 California Dreaming? A controversial salesman launches an electric two-wheeler. Is it the first practical zero-emission vehicle?

74 Dark Days for Science? Federal budget cuts may threaten achievements ranging from supercomputers to atom smashers. Will they imperil U.S. science? Two experts from the House of Representatives lock horns on the issue.

82 Masters of Mobility As if our grueling series of performance tests weren't enough, we ride the Land Rover Discovery, Range Rover, Jeep Grand Cherokee, Chevy Blazer, Ford Explorer, and GMC Yukon into the teeth of a winter storm.
