Cancer and Character

by Mary G. Marcus

Researchers keep trying to establish a link between cancer and personality. Despair, loneliness and other strong emotions have been blamed, but nobody's proved anything.

61

The Angry Samaritans

by Ted L. Huston, Gilbert Geis and Richard Wright

People who risk personal injury to help others are not merely angels of mercy. They're confident, assertive risk-takers who know violence and love the limelight.

How Busing Failed in Riverside

by Norman Miller and Harold B. Gerard
Ten years of large-scale busing brought no great benefits to black and Chicano children. And bigoted teachers did a lot of damage.
