

This new Savage 22
is for the smallbore shooter who likes the feel of a big game rifle.

You get a select walnut Monte Carlo stock with lines like a high power rifle, making it the best looking 22 in its class. And for accuracy, you get a free-floating barrel. The solid steel receiver, gracefully streamlined, houses a fast, smooth bolt action with crisp trigger pull. 5-shot magazine. The safety, under your thumb at the back of the receiver, is quick and easy to use. Lightweight, with fine balance, the Savage 65 is a lot of 22 for only $42.95. (In 22 magnum, $46.95.) See it at your sporting arms dealer now. Free color catalog, write Savage Arms, Westfield 33, Mass. 01085. Include your ZIP code.

SHOOTING TIMES

This Month's Cover

When June is busting out all over, varmint hunters also begin to stir once again. The Model 700 HB in .22 - 250 Remington with Balvar 24 scope and the XP-100 with a Nydar sight are but two choices for the dedicated varmint. Prime fox was walked up in deep Iowa snow, fell to one shot from .257 Roberts. Cover photo by Walter Schwarz.

Question Policy

We respectfully request that readers enclose one dollar ($1), either check or money order, and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with all letters which ask information of a technical nature from any of our columns. This dollar helps us pay the writer-experts for their research and letter-answering time.

The most interesting letters and answers will be published, unless you state that you want your letter kept confidential.
