

ON THE COVER

Luger buffs the world over have long waited for a return to the scene of this famous design. It is here now in the form of the new Mauser Pistolet Parabellum, based on both the P.08 and the Swiss M29. Luger aficionado Dick Eades has wrung this one out and reports in great detail on how it works, looks, and shoots in comparison to the fine Lugers of yesteryear. Learn all about it on page 46.
