SPORTS AFIELD—February 1963

Two nylon gears keep this free spool trouble free

STILL CASTS FREE AND EASY AFTER CATCHING 4,000 POUNDS OF GAME FISH

Renowned anglers Gar Wood, Jr., and his wife, Terry, tested Shakespeare's new Free Spool reels (like this Direct Drive® #1937, $24.95), and nailed two tons of fighting fish, including an official IGFA record-breaking 110-lb. sea bass. Gar says, "Shakespeare's Free Spool surpassed my highest expectations... still casts free and easy!"

Each Shakespeare Free Spool has two precision machined nylon gears that operate the level-wind, the one-piece aluminum spool, the non-reverse crank, the works! Simplicity is the word. Trouble free? You can believe it!

Your Shakespeare Braggin' Tackle dealer has uncomplicated, trouble-free Shakespeare Free Spool reels that cast mono and braided line with equal ease. He'll tell you about the complete collection, priced from only $24.95 to the Executive at $45.

Please send free 40-page, full-color 1963 Shakespeare Catalog describing the complete collection of Braggin' Tackle. Include free Pocket Fish Calendar.
