SPORTS AFIELD—March 1968

You can't bag a bear with an air rifle. Any hunter knows it.

Yet each year millions of Americans try to bag high-pay employment—without solid training. Most of them don't stand a chance.

Employers these days look for trained men. They hire them for good pay . . . and promote them faster than men who do not have extra training. It's true in virtually all fields.

Get I. C. S. training. See what we mean.

An I. C. S. diploma means something when you interview for a job—and employers know it. The fact that I. C. S. has training arrangements with several thousand U. S. companies is proof of this.

Choose the field you are interested in from the list below. Then fill out the coupon and mail it. You'll receive the famous I. C. S. "Success Kit" that has started tens of thousands on the road to really big success: three FREE booklets well worth the reading.

Your chances of bagging the job you want, at more money than you're making now, have never been better. But solid training is a must—the kind you'll get from I. C. S.

Start now. Mail the coupon.

CLIP COUPON HERE . . . and take your first big step to real success!
