On Our Cover. You'll find recipes on page 8 for our eye-catching confections (from top)—Jelly Bean Brittle, Marshmallow Easter Eggs and White Chocolate Easter Eggs.

6 Taste of Spring. Ohio field editor Vikki Rebholz shares a seasonal feast starring pork roast, asparagus, potatoes and salad, plus a cute bunny-shaped carrot cake.

10 Lighter Choices. The only thing not trimmed down is the fabulous flavor of the recipes lower in fat, sugar or salt in "Good Food That's Good for You" this time.

16 Make the Best of Tax Day. This Georgia hostess invited guests to a Tax Day party that was right on the money! It's sure to dispel any April 15th gloom for you, too.

20 Easy and Economical. For just $1.19 per serving, this appealing meal makes a great brunch or light supper. You'll find recipes for a frittata, fruit dip and muffins.

22 Delicious Deviled Eggs. Wondering what to do with leftover hard-cooked eggs? Readers suggest three devilishly delightful versions of that popular classic.

25 Clip & Keep Cards. Cheery cherry dishes from our fruitful contest start off the recipe card section, followed by some hearty mainstays and springtime sides.

39 Cooking for a Crowd. Looking for large-quantity favorites to prepare for a bridal shower, church supper or family reunion? These recipes will please a big group.

44 Two at the Table. When it's just the two of you for dinner or you're dining alone, try some of these downsized dishes that won't leave you with a lot of leftovers.

48 Save Room for Dessert! For a sweet conclusion to a spring feast, enjoy cupcakes trimmed for Easter, a luscious lemony pound cake and a tart rhubarb treat.

65 Cooking Up a Business. Meet a set of Maryland twins who have doubled up to import pretty Polish pottery, plus a Texan whose tea cakes are steeped in tradition.

67 Recipe Index. Every recipe in this issue is indexed on the inside back cover. A check mark indicates which recipes have nutritional analysis and diabetic exchanges.
