TIFFANY & Co.

Visitors to New York

Tiffany & Co. cordially invite visitors from out-of-town to inspect the objects of interest in their establishment with the assurance that they incur no obligation to purchase. Tiffany & Co.'s stock of merchandise is of as great and unusual interest as the exhibits in the art galleries and museums of New York. It comprises a more extensive variety than that of any other house engaged in a similar business. The Jewelry Department shows a very large stock of inexpensive objects, notably rings, fobs, bracelets, necklaces, collar pins, links, shirt-waist sets, cravat pins, lavallieres, etc.

Attention is also called to the display of diamonds and other precious stones mounted in many attractive forms of jewelry; the collections of rare minerals, unmounted pearls and gems; Favrite lamps, electroliers, and other articles in this unique glass; manufactures in gold, silver, leather, ivory and stationery; bronzes by American and foreign sculptors; hall, mantel and traveling clocks; statues in marble and in combinations of bronze, marble and ivory; also china, glassware, and many other objects selected with discrimination at the art centers abroad.

Correspondence Department

The facilities of Tiffany & Co.'s Correspondence Department place at the disposal of out-of-town patrons a service approximating in promptness and efficiency that accorded to those making purchases in person.

On advice as to the requirements with limit of price, Tiffany & Co. will send photographs, cuts or descriptions of what their stock affords. Selections of articles will be sent on approval to persons known to the house or to those who will make themselves known by satisfactory references. Tiffany & Co.'s 1898 Blue Book, sent upon request, will be helpful to those who cannot conveniently visit the city. It has no illustrations, but contains a comprehensive list of the stock, with concise descriptions and the range of prices.
