Postwar Dreaming: Before the fighting even begins, Bush is pitching a high-risk plan to remake Iraq and transform the Middle East. TIME takes an inside look at the U.S. plans for occupation and how the Arab world might respond..... 26

WORLD

A KEY TERRORIST'S ARREST: Khalid Shaikh Mohammed, viewed as the brains behind 9/11, is al-Qaeda's chief military planner, a cold-blooded, globe-hopping charmer as dangerous as his boss, Osama bin Laden. Pakistani authorities finally track him down 22

SPECIAL FORCES: We are already at war in Iraq, accelerating bombing in the no-fly zone and sending in commandos like "Captain Mark" ... 35

SADDAM'S BILLIONS: He sells illegal oil and owns a piece of Elle. If located, his hidden lucre could help bankroll the war against him 36

OUR BILLIONS: Bush remains convinced that tax cuts and a postwar bump will spell prosperity—and re-election 40
