

Betty Currie: What will Clinton's secretary say in court? (see NATION)

Celluloid Bill: White House fact and fiction coexist in a new movie (see COVER)

FRANÇOIS DUHAMEL—UNIVERSAL

ALLAN TANNENBAUM—SYGMA

On Trial: The discrimination case against Texaco (see BOOK EXCERPT)

TO OUR READERS: What a swell party it was 5
NOTEBOOK 19
MILESTONES 25

NATION

THE WHITE HOUSE: Keeping the Story Straight 26
 A leaked version of Clinton's deposition maps his defense, but everything hangs on his secretary—and she steers by the truth
Norma Holloway Johnson: Here comes the judge 30
PAULA JONES: The Trial Won't Be Pretty 32
 Her strategy against the President will not be softball
MYSTERY: A Case of Purloined Papers? 34
 A TIME exclusive on the disappearance of top-secret papers from a crucial State Department office
NEW YORK CITY: Try a Little Tenderness 36
 The mayor wants Gotham to be polite. What's with this guy?

WORLD

CHINA: The Man Who Steers the Economy 38
 Will the economic czar turned Premier help the People's Republic avoid getting the Asian economic flu?
SINGAPORE: An Interview with Lee Kuan Yew 40
 The lion in winter talks about China and Asian values

BUSINESS

COMPUTERS: Keep It Simple, Stupid 42
 The Pilot was a hit because its makers didn't ask it to do too much. Now comes a new model—and tougher competition
MONEY IN MOTION: What's Dunlap Doing? 44
 Daniel Kadlec on the new look of "Equity AI"

BOOK EXCERPT

THE TEXACO SCANDAL: A Business Behaving Badly 46
 Bari-Ellen Roberts tells of the racism she suffered at the oil giant and of the secret tape that proves her charges

SOCIETY AND SCIENCE

ENLIGHTENMENT: What Ever Happened to est? 52
 Founder Werner Erhard no longer resides in the U.S., but a new entity run by his brother is thriving on his principles
LAW: Harassment or Hazing 55
 The Supreme Court rules that male-on-male or female-on-female offenses are just as bad as heterosexual ones
SPECTATOR: Jailbait on the Bookshelves 56
 Bruce Handy on the flap over photographs of naked teens
TECHNOLOGY: Mr. Gates Goes to Washington 58
 A high-profile lesson in money, power and political finesse
Bill's Diary: He eats pizza, dons tux, hobnobs with stars 58
SPACE: Snapshots from Europa 60
 Is this warm, wet moon of Jupiter bursting with alien life?
GENE THERAPY: A new, virus-free way to do DNA repair 60

THE ARTS

COVER: The Reel-Life Campaign Trail 62
Primary Colors, Joe Klein's notorious roman à clef about a Bill Clinton-like presidential candidate and his political entourage, has been brought to the screen. And, all the way, the confluence of fact and fiction has provoked much gossip
John Travolta: A voracious appetite for food and work 71
Hail to the Chief: Hollywood once portrayed American Presidents with kid-glove reverence. No longer 72
TELEVISION: Party of Five's creators launch a lighter drama 74
MUSIC: Madonna has (surprise!) reinvented herself again 75
 In two spirited debuts, sisters put the focus on soul-rock 76
THEATER: A white painting causes a stir on Broadway 79
BOOKS: An epic novel taps the lushness of Puerto Rico 80
PEOPLE: Talking to Depardieu; a baby for Jodie Foster 81
ESSAY: Richard Stengel on the Princeton Tigers 82

COVER: François Duhamel—Universal Pictures

 MerchMart.com®
Gift Quality Vintage Magazines

John Travolta—Yep, he's Bill

Lights!
Camera!
Clinton!

Primary Colors is an uncanny take on his relationships with women,
the truth and America

#BXBDJLXCARR-RT-SORTB001
#56567CRL99053097#3 T5 MN44R APR98
MRS O A CARLSON 0011
#11378
BOX 53 P00216
NEW YORK MLS MN 56567-0053