UP FRONT

A sterling Olympic double by Lasse Viren confirmed Finland's return as a world distance running power. Viren scored the first 5000-10,000 double since 1956 by first setting this 27:38.4 10,000 world record—even after a jarring fall put him on the ground for several seconds—and then returning to claim the shorter distance in an Olympic record 13:26.4. After the Games, he cut the global 5000 mark to 13:16.4. /Rich Clarkson for Time
