

HMS Dreadnought, 1906.....Front Cover
Completing her trials just fifty years ago this month, the Dreadnought ushered in the era of the all-big-gun ship. The cover picture was prepared especially for the U. S. Naval Institute by Mr. George B. Keester after the painting by the English artist, Norman Wilkinson. For the story of the origin of the Dreadnought and her influence, see the articles beginning on pages 1309 and 1316 below.
