Easter, Glad Day of Remembrance!

EASTER is a day of remembrance for us even as it should have been for Jesus' disciples. After the disappointment and sorrow of Good Friday, the day of the Crucifixion, the disciples had scattered to their homes to hide their grief and try to understand why such suffering should have come to their beloved Master. On the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene, Salome, and Mary the mother of James, went to the tomb, taking with them spices that they had prepared to embalm the body of Jesus.

Much to their surprise when they came to the tomb they found the stone rolled away and the body of Jesus gone. Inside the tomb they found two men in dazzling raiment who asked them why they sought the living among the dead. "He is risen," they said. "Don't you remember how He told you when He was still in Galilee, that on the third day He would rise again!"

The women were frightened and ran to tell the disciples, but the disciples, in their grief, had forgotten that their dear Master had promised them He would rise again on the third day. Had they remembered this promise they would have laid aside their grief in their joyous expectation of the fulfillment of the promise. But they couldn't believe that anything so wonderful could be true. No man had ever before raised his own body from the grave!

Peter went to the empty tomb and looked at the grave clothes, which were still there, and went away wondering. Eight days later Jesus met with the disciples, but Thomas would not believe that it was Jesus until Jesus told him to see His hands and to put his hand in His side. Then He said to Thomas: "Because you have seen me you have believed. Blessed are they that have not seen yet have believed."

This blessing is for every boy and every girl, every man and every woman living today who believes in the risen Lord. That is why we make of Easter a glad day of remembrance. We remember that Jesus not only arose from the dead but that He still lives in your heart and mine, helping us to love one another and guiding and directing us in happy ways of joyous living.
