

Woman's Day

MAY, 1967 Thirtieth Year • Eighth Issue
"And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." JOHN 8:32

PEOPLE IN THIS ISSUE

Judith Chase Churchill

Ruth Seder Cooke

Margaret Cousins

JUDITH CHASE CHURCHILL and RUTH SEDER COOKE, WOMAN'S DAY Beauty and Fashion Editors respectively, have complementary features this month on leg care and leg accessories, and also share similar work patterns: each has to think a season ahead (right now, it's autumn-going-into-winter on their calendars) and keep a sharp eye on trends in what "looks" women are choosing. Mrs. Churchill lives in Princeton, New Jersey. Her husband is a science writer; their twin sons are photographers. Mrs. Cooke is a Manhattanite and, with her drama-critic husband, is a perpetual first-nighter; the Cookes' son Timothy is serving in Vietnam. MARGARET COUSINS is a writer whose articles and fiction have appeared in almost every major periodical, and an editor—in the past for top women's magazines, currently for Doubleday—who is famous for her capability, wit and warm personality. On pages 62-66, she writes about the dream home of WOMAN'S DAY Food and Equipment Editor Glenna McGinnis, whom she knows as a friend, and whom she admires for her sense of humor and "because Glenna's pervading femininity has never been diminished by a big executive job."
